

1930s

Throughout the 1930s, the excitement for the Annual Spring Salon continued to grow.

"To give trees and flowers is a start, but the miracle it has accomplished is her famous collection of art."

The students remained excited about art! They wrote poems, raised funds to purchase art, and exclaimed their pride for their famous art collection and exhibition.

1937 faculty

cohort in Museum

1935
Breaking Ground

Designed by architect Claude Ashworth in a Spanish Revival style, the whole Museum building was a labor of love. Students built the tiles by hand from Utah County clay under the direction of Virgil O. Hafen, local artist and son of John Hafen.

Helping to Beautify Building

"Our art exhibit has won great fame; It is known from East to West."

"When we leave high school we shall take away with us the memory of these paintings and we shall return time and time again to enjoy their beauty."

Some Red Devil

The SHS Art Gallery Opens!

NEW BUILDING TO HOUSE SPRINGVILLE ART SHOW
More Than 50,000 Art Lovers Expected at 16th Annual Exhibit

Scenes at New Home for Art Treasures

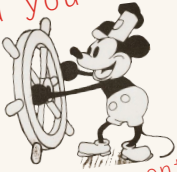

Paintings of Many New Artists Will Be Seen at Show Opening March 28

Finally, a permanent building for the art.

Did you know?

Walt Disney entered the Spring Salon in 1939

1937

DEDICATION

This Way Please.

Marline Jew, '31

"A sanctuary of beauty and a temple of contemplation."
-David O. McKay, LDS apostle, 1937

"Don't believe what anyone tells you about art. No one has the divine right to tell you what is good and what is not. If you go to the gallery and like one picture best it is yours."
-Cyrus Dallin, 1937

& the thousands who visit it proclaim it's numbered among the very best."

class of 1930

Paul Lauritz
(1889 - 1975) b. Larvik, Norway

Crashing Harmony 1929
oil on canvas
Gift from 1931 Springville High School Sophomore Class

Leland S. Curtis
(1897 - 1989) b. Denver, CO

Sierra Dawn 1931
oil on canvas
Gift from 1932 Springville High School Junior Class

Walter Emerson Baum
(1884 - 1956) b. Sellersville, PA

Bethlehem Street 1932

oil on canvas

Gift from 1933 Springville High School Freshman Class

Olaf Manfred Moller
(1901 - 1987) b. Copenhagen, Denmark

Tiffany Pool 1927
oil on canvas
Gift from 1933 Springville High School Junior Class

Marguerite Stuber Pearson
(1898 - 1978) b. Philadelphia, PA

Snowbound 1935

oil on canvas

Gift from 1936 Springville Junior High School Eighth Grade Class

Hermann Dudley Murphy
(1867 - 1945) b. Marlborough, MA

Marigolds and Cosmos 1937
oil on canvas

Gift from 1937 Springville Junior High School Eighth Grade Class

William Sergeant Kendall
(1869 - 1938) b. Spuyten Duyvil, NY

The Artist's Wife and Daughters 1906
oil on canvas
Gift from 1938 Springville High School Junior Class

Joseph Henry Sharp
(1859 - 1953) b. Bridgeport, OH

Playing the Game c.1930
oil on canvas

Gift from 1939 Springville Junior High School Eighth Grade Class