FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

53rd Annual Utah All-State High School Art Show Showcases Exceptional Student Talent at Springville Museum of Art

Springville, Utah – January 22, 2025 – The Springville Museum of Art is proud to present the 53rd Annual Utah All-State High School Art Show, a prestigious exhibition celebrating the extraordinary artistic talents of Utah’s high school students.

The exhibition will feature a diverse range of over 300 artworks -- including paintings, drawings, sculptures, ceramics, photography, mixed media, and more -- selected from over one thousand submissions from 98 high schools across the state. The All-State High School Art Show provides a unique platform for young artists to showcase their creativity, receive recognition for their exceptional work, and gain valuable exposure within the Utah art community.

Exhibition Details:

- Exhibition dates – February 1 – March 21, 2025
- Opening Reception – February 1, 11am-1pm
- Springville Museum of Art
126 E 400 S, Springville, Utah
- Admission is free!

Beyond showcasing student talent, the show provides opportunities for individual recognition by arts organizations and the Utah state legislature. Over $30,000 in cash awards and scholarships are presented to outstanding artists, thanks to generous partners and sponsors. Additionally, Utah Congressional representatives each select works to display in Washington, D.C. as part of a national competition.

The Springville Museum of Art’s High School Art Show is not just an exhibition; it is a beacon of inspiration for young artists. The opportunity to have their art displayed in such a respected institution instills a sense of pride and accomplishment that can be transformative for these young individuals.
